APPENDIX TO AMENDED EXHIBIT B TO REGISTRATION STATEMENT

For the period December 15, 2014 - June 15, 2015

7. Describe fully the nature and method of performance of the above indicated agreement or understanding.

On behalf of Mr. Gilbert R. Chagoury, Registrant engaged in a media relations campaign from December 15, 2014 - June 15, 2015 to assist in promoting then-Nigerian President Goodluck Jonathan in connection with his re-election campaign. The elections were set for early 2015.

Activities included outreach to media outlets, and foreign policy and other experts, regarding Mr. Jonathan's platform and key accomplishments, particularly regarding Boko Haram, the economy, ebola, education, and transparency and accountability.

In furtherance of this representation, Registrant retained several entities to assist with the media relations campaign; Registrant engaged ASGK Public Strategies d/b/a Kivvit to provide public relations advice and media monitoring, prepare supporting materials, and establish and manage a Twitter account.

Registrant also engaged NWG Public Affairs LLC in January 2015 to arrange meetings between Members of Congress and congressional staff and representatives of Mr. Jonathan's Administration, Hassan Tukur (then-Chief of Staff to Mr. Jonathan) and Mustafa Chike-Obi (then-Chief Economic Advisor to Mr. Jonathan). While several meetings were arranged, all were cancelled due to inclement weather except for one on March 6, 2015, with Rep. Chris Smith, then-Chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on Africa. Registrant attended this meeting as well.

Registrant also collaborated with Black Bag, LLC, which provided additional public relations support, and 4Impact LLC, which served as a liaison to Mr. Chagoury and identified NWG Public Affairs LLC to serve as the registered lobbyist to arrange the meetings on Capitol Hill.

During the course of the representation, at the request of Mr. Chagoury, Registrant and its consultants communicated at various times with Nigerian government officials to, among other things, gather information relating to Mr. Jonathan's platform and key accomplishments for media outreach efforts, coordinate meetings with Members of Congress and congressional staff, and provide advice and suggestions on responses to certain developments.
